Modules Available

Each Module Includes:

- Introduction
- Video training (audio and text)
- Discussion board
- Case study
- Quiz

Length: Approximately 15-25 minutes per video training.

1. Abuse Awareness: In this module, we will address what abuse is and how prevalent it is. We will discuss the definitions and indicators of abuse and global statistics.

2. Abuse Prevention: In this module, we will address our responsibility to prevent abuse and how we are vulnerable to abuse. An overview of insurance standards, recruitment and screening requirements and duty of care will also be provided.

3. Reporting and Response: In this module, we will address reporting and responding to child abuse and vulnerable adult abuse. When we truly understand that we have a duty to report and respond to abuse, we will be able to protect the individuals we work with.

4. Health and Safety: In this module, we will address health and safety guidelines including first aid, allergies, illnesses, medication, blood pathogens, and emergencies.

5. Disabilities Initiatives: This module will provide an overview of the different types of disabilities you may encounter and general tips for abuse prevention and protection.

6. Best Practices: In this module, we will address best practices for organizations working with the vulnerable sector. These best practices include supervision, staffing, ratios, registration, attendance, and transportation.

7. Child Protection Procedures Part 1: In this module, we will discuss child protection procedures which include demonstrating affection, receiving and releasing children, and restroom guidelines.

8. Child Protection Procedures Part 2: In this module, we will discuss additional child protection procedures such as discipline, classroom management, off site events, and overnight activities.

9. Youth Protection Procedures Part 1: In this module, we will address protection procedures and best practices for youth programming. Youth specific issues such as lifestyle, dating, physical contact, and restroom guidelines will be addressed. This module will also cover high risk activities such as off-site trips, overnight events and counselling, which are inherent to youth programming.

10. Youth Protection Procedures Part 2: In this module, we will address youth protection procedures including housing, hosting, showers, and locker rooms. We will also address issues such as suicide and substance abuse.

11. Social Issues and Communication: In this module, we will address social issues such as bullying, cyber bullying, and photography. We will also take a look at policies related to communication, such as communicating with minors, internet safety, and technology use.

A. Overview for International Workers Long Term: This module will address best practices for international workers on a long term basis. We will take a look at reporting guidelines, cultural issues and tips for parents with children in international schools.

B. Overview for International Workers Short Term: This module will address best practices for international workers on a short term basis. We will take a look at reporting guidelines, cultural issues and tips for planning short term trips.
